

Weill Cornell Medicine

PROVIDING WORLD-CLASS CARE WITH  NewYork-Presbyterian

Weill Cornell Medicine's Department of Psychiatry is seeking a psychiatrist for a full-time faculty position with clinical responsibilities in New York Presbyterian's Center for Special Studies, a multi-disciplinary primary care program for adults with HIV, or at risk for HIV. The successful candidate will collaborate with an interdisciplinary team to provide ongoing assessment, psychopharmacology, and therapy to a culturally diverse population across the outpatient and inpatient settings. All faculty members contribute to teaching, training, and education. Pursuit of research and scholarly activities is encouraged.

The Center for Special Studies offers a very high standard of care in a welcoming setting and has been a leader in HIV care since 1988. The program features four full time psychiatrists working at two locations. The structure affords collegiality, manageable case-loads, the time necessary to provide individualized and thorough care, and the ability to build strong and lasting relationships with patients. Patients who require hospitalization are admitted to and followed by their outpatient teams at New York Presbyterian Weill Cornell Medical Center, a nationally recognized university teaching hospital.

Minimum Qualifications: Candidates must be board certified or eligible in Psychiatry and possess or be eligible for a license in the state of New York. Academically oriented candidates with experience in HIV, Consultation Liaison Psychiatry, or Addiction Psychiatry strongly preferred.

Diversity is one of Weill Cornell Medicine's core values and is essential to achieving excellence in patient care, research, and education. We welcome applications from candidates who share our commitment to fostering a culture of fairness, equity, and belonging. Weill Cornell Medicine is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer, providing equal employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, color, age, religion, protected veteran or disability status, or genetic information.

Application deadline: November 1, 2024.

Start Date: July 1, 2025 (or earlier accounting for 4-month credentialing process)

Salary: Minimum salary: $265,000 Maximum salary: $265,000

Weill Cornell Medicine provides the above salary range in compliance with the New York City law on Salary Transparency in Job Advertisements. The salary range listed is for full-time employment not including bonuses, clinical incentive compensation, or benefits. The above salary range for New York City based roles represents WCM's good faith and reasonable estimate of possible compensation at the time of posting.
