

Weill Cornell Medicine's Department of Psychiatry in conjunction with NewYork-Presbyterian (NYP) is seeking to recruit a child and adolescent Psychiatrist for an Inpatient Attending position on our general acute care service at NYP's Westchester Behavioral Health Center in White Plains, New York. Academically-oriented physicians with a strong foundation in the assessment and treatment of children and adolescents with psychiatric disorders are encouraged to apply. Responsibilities include collaborating with a multidisciplinary team to provide outstanding assessment and clinical care to patients and families. The position entails the education and training of medical students, residents, and trainees across disciplines.

Minimum Requirements: Board certified or eligible in Psychiatry and Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Completion of a child and adolescent psychiatry fellowship. Possess or be eligible for a NYS license.

Diversity is one of Weill Cornell Medicine's core values and is essential to achieving excellence in patient care, research, and education. We seek applications from candidates who share our commitment to fostering a culture of fairness, equity, and belonging. Weill Cornell Medicine is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer, seeking applicants from diverse backgrounds, including race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, color, age, religion, protected veteran or disability status, or genetic information.

Founded in 1898, and affiliated with what is now NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital (NYPH) since 1927, Weill Cornell Medical College (WCMC) is among the top-ranked clinical and medical research centers in the country. Westchester Behavioral Health Center is a 250-bed facility renowned for the range and quality of its inpatient and outpatient specialty programs, as well as its general psychiatric services. The program has been named a "Planetree Designated Patient-Centered Hospital" – the first behavioral health hospital in the U.S. and one of only 16 hospitals worldwide to receive this distinction. We are consistently recognized as one of the nation's best psychiatric programs by U.S. News and World Report.
