

Weill Cornell Medicine
Psychiatry

NewYork-Presbyterian

Weill Cornell Medicine's Department of Psychiatry in conjunction with NewYork-Presbyterian is seeking to recruit a Psychiatrist for an Inpatient Attending position on the Eating Disorders service at Westchester Behavioral Health Center in White Plains, New York. The Eating Disorders service has a national reputation for providing state-of-the-art care for adults and adolescents with eating disorders. Academically-oriented clinicians with a strong foundation in general psychiatry and eating disorders are encouraged to apply. Fellowship training in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry is desirable but not required. Responsibilities include leading a multidisciplinary team to provide clinical care to patients and teaching and supervision of medical students, residents and fellows.

Diversity is one of Weill Cornell Medicine's core values and is essential to achieving excellence in patient care, research, and education. We seek applications from candidates who share our commitment to fostering a culture of fairness, equity, and belonging. Weill Cornell Medicine is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer, seeking applicants from diverse backgrounds, including race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, color, age, religion, protected veteran or disability status, or genetic information.

Minimum Requirements: Candidates should be board certified or eligible in Psychiatry and possess or be eligible for New York State license. Fellowship training Child and Adolescent Psychiatry is preferred. Academic rank will be commensurate with experience.

Founded in 1898, and affiliated with what is now NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital (NYPH) since 1927, Weill Cornell Medical College (WCMC) is among the top-ranked clinical and medical research centers in the country. The Westchester Behavioral Health Center is a 250-bed facility renowned for the range and quality of its inpatient and outpatient specialty programs, as well as its general psychiatric services. The program has been named a "Planetree Designated Patient-Centered Hospital" – the first behavioral health hospital in the U.S. and one of only 16 hospitals worldwide to receive this distinction. We are consistently recognized as one of the nation's best psychiatric programs by U.S. News and World Report.
