Weill Cornell Medicine

PROVIDING WORLD-CLASS CARE WITH NewYork-Presbyterian

Position: Psychiatrist

Location: NewYork-Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medical Center, Manhattan's Upper East Side

Role and Responsibilities:
Weill Cornell Medicine's Department of Psychiatry is seeking a psychiatrist for a full-time faculty position embedded within the Center for Liver Disease and Transplantation and the Center for Alcohol and Liver Medicine (CALM). Working collaboratively with a multidisciplinary team of liver disease specialists, the psychiatrist will provide evaluation and treatment for transplant candidates, recipients, and living donors, as well as patients with alcohol-related liver disease.

- Provide inpatient psychiatric consultation for listed pre- and post-liver transplant patients and donors.
- Conduct outpatient and urgent inpatient psychiatric evaluations of liver transplant candidates and prospective living donors.
- Conduct psychiatric evaluations for patients with alcohol related liver disease.
- Supervise and teach trainees at multiple levels, including consultation-liaison psychiatry fellows and general psychiatry residents.
- Provide cross-coverage for the general consultation-liaison psychiatry service.

Minimum and Desired Qualifications:
- Board certification or board eligibility in Psychiatry.
- Current New York State medical license or eligibility for licensure in New York.
- Training and experience in consultation-liaison psychiatry or addiction psychiatry is strongly preferred.
- Academic orientation and a demonstrated commitment to collaborative, multidisciplinary care.
