

Weill Cornell Medicine's Department of Psychiatry is seeking a psychologist for a full-time faculty position based in the Ambulatory Services Program at New York-Presbyterian/Westchester Behavior Health Center in White Plains, New York. The selected candidate will oversee our adolescent and youth DBT clinical and training program. The individual will be responsible for diagnostic evaluations and psychotherapy of adults within an interdisciplinary team. The psychologist will provide supervision to psychology and psychiatry trainees.

Minimum requirements: Applicants must have a doctoral degree in Clinical Psychology from an APA-accredited program and should possess or be eligible for NY state licensure. A strong foundation with DBT is required. Start date is flexible with earliest start date summer of 2020.

Founded in 1898, and affiliated with what is now New York-Presbyterian Hospital (NYPH) since 1927, Weill Cornell Medical College (WCMC) is among the top-ranked clinical and medical research centers in the country. Weill Cornell Psychiatry is one of the largest, most prestigious departments in the country, with a long, distinguished history of providing outstanding leadership in clinical care, training, and research in all areas of psychiatric disorders. Our programs at Payne Whitney Manhattan and New York-Presbyterian-Hospital's Westchester Division are renowned for the range and quality of our inpatient and outpatient specialty programs and general psychiatric services. The Westchester Division, is a 260-bed facility located in White Plains New York has been named a "Planetree Designated Patient-Centered Hospital" – the first behavioral health hospital in the U.S. and one of only 16 hospitals worldwide to receive this distinction. We are consistently recognized as one of the nation's best psychiatric hospitals – ranked first in New York and among the top in the nation by U.S. News and World Report.

Diversity and Inclusion are a part of Cornell University's heritage. We are a recognized employer and educator valuing AA/EEO, Protected Veterans, and Individuals with Disabilities. We also recognize a lawful preference in employment practices for Native Americans living on or near Indian reservations.

Qualified candidates are encouraged to e-mail a CV, statement of professional interest to:

Jennifer Walsh
Chief Administrative Officer, Psychiatry
Weill Cornell Medicine
Department of Psychiatry
jaw2015@med.cornell.edu